Smith, local representative of Horace Kercheval and company, stock brokers of Nashville, committed suicide this morning by shooting himself through the heart with a revolver. He had been despondent of late, presumably over business reverses.

THE CONGRESSIONAL MUDDLE. Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 23—The affidavits of R. L. Gwathney, secretary of the Republican state central committee and of W. B. Chambers, a member of that committee from the Second congressional district, and of C. Q. Reynolds, member from Seventh congressional district, denying the one man power claimed by the state chairman Barnett to exist in the Eleventh district, and that Chairman J. S. Cooper is authorized by the Republican party, were filed in the office of secretary of state.

SAN ANTONIO ISOLATED. San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 23—The state and federal health authorities have taken charge of the yellow fever situation here and under their instructions the following official bulletin was issued last evening: "New cases today, four; deaths,

Two of the new cases are out of danger. The other two cases are serious.

Dr. Tabor state health officer, is considering the matter of state quarantine against San Antonio. San Antonio is now shut off from all neighboring towns by local quarantine, and so far as business is concerned is completely isolated from the rest of the world.

The state health authorities claim to have the situation well in hand, and say that in view of the near approach of cold weather there is no fear of the disease spreading.

There is but little excitement here over the situation.

GRAND LODGE ENDS

Capt. B. B. Davis, of Paducah, Appointed Trustee.

Yesterday the Impressive Installation of Officers Took Place—Questions Deferred.

A DECISION OF GRAND MASTER

The Masonic Grand Lodge of Kentucky adjourned yesterday afternoon at Louisville. The following were named as trustees for the new building: Samuel Lederman, T. L. Jefferson, Louisville; W. O. McChord, Springfield; C. F. Fisk, Covington; Capt. Brinton B. Davis, Paducah.

The proposition of the lessee to add $1,000 per year to the rent of the theatre for the privilege of giving Sunday performances was referred to the trustees.

The installation of the new officers was an impressive feature of yesterday's session.

The officers installed are: Owen D. Thomas, of Lebanon, Grand Master; Roland H. O. Rhea, of Morganfield, Deputy Grand Master; James Garnett, Jr., of Columbia, Grand Senior Warden; S. K. Veach, of Carlisle, Grand Junior Warden; Capt. John H. Leathers, of Louisville, Grand Treasurer; Capt. H. B. Grant, of Louisville, Grand Secretary; J. A. Hodges, of Louisville, Assistant Grand Secretary; J. W. Rogers, of Walton, Grand Chaplain, and Joseph T. Davidson, Grand Tyler.

The question as to the future rejection of liquor sellers as members of the Masonic fraternity has been referred to a special committee. It is said that this committee will defer its report until the next meeting of the Grand Lodge.

Much time was consumed in a discussion of the adverse report of the Committee on Jurisprudence in regard to the second decision was as follows: "It is unlawful for lodges to abide by written agreement as to jurisdiction. The constitution prescribes the boundary between lodges and any agreement, written or otherwise, is invalid."

THE STREET ROLLER.

ITS USEFULNESS IS NOW ABOUT OVER, IT IS CLAIMED.

The street roller, which was bought by the business men's council a few years ago and has been used very little since the Democrats came into control of the city, is said to now be practically ruined, principally due to the incompetency and neglect of those the Democrats have loaned it to and left it in charge of. The roller yesterday went into soft ground on North Third Street, and one of the city officials today said that it would never be worth anything again until it got a new boiler, as it was badly damaged, if not practically ruined, a few years ago when city employees actually allowed it to catch fire and nearly all the woodwork about it to be burned.

The roller is acknowledged to be one of the best street implements used, and to thus ruin it is something for which city officials should receive the severest censure.

MR. HARRISON APPOINTED. Attorney Tom Harrison was this morning appointed and sworn in as city prosecuting attorney to fill out the unexpired term of the late Jesse Gilbert. He acted in police court this morning for the first time as city prosecutor.

Judge Husbands Holds Citizens May be Liable.

Colonel R. G. Caldwell Draws First Blood in Suit Against Ledger.

POLICE AND OTHER COURTS

CIRCUIT COURT.

The most important case in circuit court today was a demurrer in the suit of Colonel R. G. Caldwell, chairman of the Democratic city committee, against the evening Ledger for alleged criminal libel. Colonel Caldwell sued for $25,000 damages and subsequently filed an amended petition making Messrs. James Koger, W. B. Smith, B. H. Scott, E. W. Smith and C. Q. O. Leigh parties to the suit, claiming that they were furnishing the money to print the paper.

They came into court today and filed a demurrer, claiming that the article in question was not libelous, and that they were not personally responsible even if it were. Judge Husbands read only a few lines of the article and decided it was libelous; he also held that if it can be proven at the trial of Colonel Caldwell's suit that the gentlemen in question are backing the Ledger, they can be held personally liable for damages. He accordingly overruled the demurrer, which sends the case to trial on its merits.

It is said that whoever is backing the paper is also liable for a $1,000 fine for not having some person on whom legal process could be served. Another interesting matter discussed today was whether or not the suits dismissed in the federal court and brought again in the circuit court, are not barred. It is in the case of L. E. Stevenson, administrator against the I. O. for $1,999—one of the suits resulting from the Dawson wreck. It was originally brought for $20,000, taken to federal court and there dismissed so it could be brought again in the circuit court. The railroad attorneys claim it was dismissed entirely, and cannot be brought again, and Judge Husbands will render his opinion tomorrow.

A. M. Tyler applied for admittance to the local bar and Attorneys Hendricks and Berry appointed to examine him.

M. R. Geagen and Jack Whitesides were fined $1 and costs each for a breach of the peace.

The case against Dora Crawford, colored, for a breach of the peace, was left open.

W. J. Reeves, white, was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

William Bradshaw and Tom Scott, colored, were employed by the Paducah Transfer company and while unloading meat several days ago got into a dispute ending in both men getting hurt. Bradshaw used a stick on Scott and broke two ribs and injured him in the groin by striking him with a stick. Bradshaw was struck once in the right eye by Scott.

Judge Sanders heard the greater portion of the evidence but on account of the absence of two witnesses, left the case open.

The cases against Al Phelps for gaming, and Bob Wathen and John Oashon for suffering gaming to go on over their saloon, were continued until Monday. The witnesses were not all present, having gone across the river fishing, but Judge Sanders stated that he did not intend to continue the case any longer and insisted on a trial

SOME RELIEF

I. C. FREIGHT CONGESTION IS NOT SO BAD TODAY.

The congested condition of freight in the local I. C. yards is somewhat better this morning, although the blockade has not yet been thoroughly broken and but comparatively few trains have been sent out.

The manifest trains were the only ones handled north yesterday but today other trains are being run. The road is making every effort to better the situation and is getting all the crews and motive power possible to secure in order to move the freight.

Mr. O. M. Dunn, assistant superintendent of southern lines of the I. C., returned south to Fulton last night after a business trip to the city and to Cedar Bluff.

A telegraph station, day and night, has been installed at Little Cypress a station on the Louisville division of the I. C.

Mr. Hugh La Rue, flagman on the Cairo extension of the I. C., has resigned his position with the road.

Miss Ada Eaton, one of the nurses at the I. C. hospital, has returned after a six weeks vacation.

Superintendent A. E. Eagan and Roadmaster F. L. Thompson are in the city today.

TROUBLE GETTING MARRIED.

Fulton, Ky., Oct. 23.—Mr. Jasper Washburn and Miss Lona Gore had a hard time getting married here but persistency and patience won out today. They ran away from the irate parents of the bride and came to Fulton, determined to get married. Esquire Wade wired to Union City for license but the license failed to reach Fulton until noon today, but the magistrate took charge of the couple and sheltered the muddled necessary document arrived and shortly after 12 o'clock today he pronounced them man and wife and they went their way rejoicing. Both Mr. and Mrs. Washburn are residents of Pryorsburg, Graves county.

MUST GRANT LICENSE.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 23.—The court of appeals, by Chief Justice Burnam, reversed the Metcalf circuit court in the case of R. O. Hodges vs Metcalf county court. The appellant made application to the county court for license to retail liquor. The county court refused the license, the law having been complied with and there being no evidence that the applicant was a person of bad character. The circuit court directed the county court to give a new hearing. This court in reversing holds that the circuit court should have directed the county court to grant the license, and so directs.

ADAM STORY A MYTH

So Says a Chicago Rabbi in Sensational Sermon.

There Was Never Such a Thing As the Garden of Eden, He Says.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 23.—"There never was an Eden. Man never was perfect, and never by a single transgression involved his whole posterity in guilt," said Rev. Dr. E. G. Hirsch in a sermon at temple Israel.

"The third chapter of Genesis," said Dr. Hirsch, "is the basis of the Christian system. It is held to teach that the first man and the first woman lived in sinless perfection and in undisturbed peace and happiness in a garden of delight for a long time, but eventually lost all by a single act of sin. This sin, the theory is, infected their posterity and brought the whole race under the curse of God. To remedy this a second Adam became necessary, who, by his death on the cross, should repair the damage done by the first Adam.

"Of the Christian doctrine of the atonement I have no opinion to express at present. But I am here to defend Judaism against the charge of originating and holding this doctrine about Eden and the fall of man.

"To do this it is not necessary for me to quote the writings of the later rabbis. All that is necessary is to refer to the fact that the story of Eden is not mentioned anywhere in the Jewish Bible, except in the third chapter of Genesis. If it were true it would be of the greatest importance, and it would have been found everywhere in the Jewish writings.

"We reach the same conclusion if we approach the subject from the direction of science. Nothing in science is better settled than that the first man was only a little better than the lower animals, and that instead of living in perfect enjoyment, his life was one of terrific struggle with the forces of nature and with living enemies.

VISIT THE HOLY LAND

Nearly a Thousand Delegates Go From America.

Several Kentucky Delegates to Attend One a Former Paducahan.

Kentucky will send at least seven delegates to the fourth World's Sunday school convention, in Jerusalem, April 18, 19 and 20, 1904. They are: J. A. Francis, Winchester; Miss Sue Scott, Lexington; A. C. Taylor, Burnside; A. K. Right, Mrs. K. Knight, E. A. Fox and the Rev. Everette Gill, of this city.

It is expected that the gathering will be the largest body of Christians assembled at Jerusalem since the day of Pentecost, with the exception of the armies of the Crusade. Jerusalem was chosen not only for sentimental reasons, but also to give Sunday school workers from all over the world an opportunity to study in the land of the sacred authors at first hand. A part of the trip to be taken by the delegates will embrace a 71 days' cruise on the Mediterranean, during which various points of interest in Northern Africa and the Orient will be visited.

The first world's convention was held in London in 1888. Since then one convention has been held in St. Louis and another in London. Over 500 delegates have so far been chosen from North America, and only 350 more will be added to the passenger list of the chartered vessel. In addition to the seven delegates already chosen from Kentucky, it is probable that others will be named from other towns.

Prof. Fox, one of the Kentucky delegates, is a former Paducahan, having been a principal in the High school here for several years. He is now secretary of the State Sunday school association.

Mrs. Louise Sauerburg, of South Fourth street, entertained a number of young people at cards last evening.

Capt. Frank Farnesley, of the Barrett, was in the city today.

MRS. CUMMINS HAD NO APPETITE.

25 Emily Street, Crafton, Pa., August 15, 1903.

Mrs. Cummins says: "I had been troubled with insomnia for several months. This made me weak and nervous and my appetite was very poor. I disliked the sight of food. I tried a change of air, then various medicines, all of which did me no good. My cousin, who was visiting me from Indiana, recommended Paine's Celery Compound. I have taken two bottles and now my appetite is splendid. I have gained nearly 15 pounds in the last month."

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND CURED HER.

THE FROGS DESIRING A KING.

Find Jove.

The Frogs, living an easy, free sort of life among the lakes and ponds, once prayed Jupiter to send them a King. Jove, being at that time in a merry mood, threw them a log, saying, as he did so: "There then, is a King for you." Awd by the splash, the Frogs watched their King in fear and trembling, till at last, encouraged by his stillness, one more daring than the rest, jumped upon the shoulder of his monarch. Soon many others followed his example, and made merry on the back of their unresisting King. Speedily tiring of such a torpid ruler, they again petitioned Jupiter, and asked him to send them something more like a King. This time he sent them a Stork, who tossed them about and gobbled them up without mercy. They lost no time, therefore, in beseeching the god to give them again their former state. "No, no," replied he; "a King that can do no harm did not please you. Make the best of the one you have, or you may chance to get a worse in his place."

THE CANTEN

FIGURES SHOWING THAT ITS ABOLITION WAS A MISTAKE.

Washington, Oct. 23.—While the admission rate for alcoholism represents only so much of the total intemperance of the army as comes under the professional observation of the medical officers, nevertheless when taken for a long term of years and for many thousands of men it is a very fair index of the drinking habits of the troops. From the reports of the surgeon general for the past twenty years it is found that alcoholism is no nearly so great an evil in the army as it was prior to the establishment of the post exchange allowing the sale of beer and light wines to the soldier. From 1883 to 1888 the annual admission rate for alcoholism varied from 69 to 40 per 1,000. When this last figure was reached the surgeon general reported in 1889: "There is here manifested a gratifying temperance movement which it is hoped the canteen system may render more actively progressive," and in 1890, "Prohibition on the military reservation has been suggested and tried, but this has immediately invited the establishment of dens of dissipation and disease just beyond the jurisdiction of the commanding officer. License on the reservation, in the opinion of our medical officers, is infinitely preferable to unbridled license outside of it. It is believed that the canteen system will have a greater effect in reducing Stewart has just returned from New Orleans, where he had his eyes treated and that he has been relieved of the trouble with his eyes as stated in the Record several weeks ago. For some time it was thought that he would lose his eyesight, and the announcement that he is well of the trouble will be read with much pleasure by his many friends in Cadiz, Paducah, Mayfield and other Western Kentucky towns where he is well known."

ALDERMEN MEETING

A Number of Ordinances Passed Last Night.

Steam Heat for the Fire Department —A Number of Matters Acted On.

CALLED MEETING SOON

The board of aldermen met last night in regular session with all members present.

The action taken in a former meeting in voting down an ordinance providing for the sale of a franchise for the Paducah City Railway company to change its tracks from Bernheim avenue out North 12th street, was reconsidered, so a vote may again soon be taken.

A bill from County Clerk Charles E. Graham for copying the registration books, and for the books, was referred.

The matter of reducing the franchise tax of the Paducah Steam Heating company from $5,000 to $500 this year was referred to the city solicitor. The franchise was sold for $500 and the next day assessed by the city at $5,000.

The following ordinances were acted on:

Ordinance providing for the extension of the sewerage system on Ninth between Tennessee and Jones street, given second passage.

Amendment to ordinance providing for the extension of sewerage system, providing for the completion of contract by December 31, 1904 instead of 1903. This is the job of extending the sewers from Tennessee street between Third and Fourth streets beyond Norton street. First passage given.

Ordinance placing the city treasurer's salary at $1,800 per annum given first passage.

Ordinance giving the Rex Mfg Co. permission to close up an alley between their double buildings in Mechanicsburg and open one in another direction. Given first passage.

City Jailor Evitts was ordered to clean the council chamber thoroughly every week, on motion of Alderman Kirchhoff.

It was ordered to have steam heating placed in the central fire station, if deemed advisable, on motion of Alderman Singleton. The city will have to pay for the connections only, the heat being furnished free by the company.

The petition presented by property owners to have the alley between Seventh and Eighth, Clark and Adams street improved by grading and graveling, was referred back to them. Only a portion had signed and it requires more signatures of property owners.

The committee to which the matter of placing in piling along the river front at the foot of Broadway to better wharf facilities was referred, was given more time.

Alderman Troutman urged the board to reinstruct the committee on ordinances to draft an ordinance compelling the two railroad companies to install automatic gates at the railroad crossings here. This was ordered some time ago, but the committee has never drawn up the ordinance.

A deed to a lot in Oak Grove, made to Mrs. J. M. Gilbert, was ratified.

A saloon license was granted John Vinson to do business near Tenth and Boyd streets.

J. R. Turner & Co. was granted a coffee house license to do business at Ninth and Boyd streets.

The board adopted resolutions of respect to the death of the late Jesse M. Gilbert, prosecuting attorney, and ordered the council chamber draped in mourning for thirty days.

The street committee was ordered again to look after the matter of placing in watering troughs on the streets throughout the city. This had been referred once but no action taken. City Engineer Washington has a catalogue of the troughs and the committee will meet shortly and decide on the style troughs and make an order.

The motion of Alderman Troutman to have the city hospital papered was adopted.

On motion of Alderman Chamblin the street inspector and city engineer were ordered to place in cast iron culverts at several street crossings as an experiment. The wooden crossings have to be repaired so often and much expense is incurred in buying new timber. The iron crossing lasts for years.

The matter of the council permit-

ORGANIZATION OF CREDIT MEN IS PROBABLE.

Mr. Francis J. Stockwell, of St. Louis, assistant secretary of the National Association of Credit Men, is in the city to organize a branch among Paducah merchants. There are 4,700 firms belonging to the association in this country, and if as many as thirty members can be secured here, a separate branch will be organized. If less they will be added to the main association. The object is to do all possible to benefit merchants, manufacturers, etc., in regard to financial legislation, etc. A meeting will be held this evening at the Palmer house.

AT SAN JUAN

IT WILL BE A FORTIFIED STRONGHOLD OF AMERICA.

San Juan, P. R., Oct. 23.—It is learned that the fortification board had decided to make San Juan one of the American fortified strongholds. All the Spanish guns which were in the fortifications at the time the Americans took possession have been rejected, and surveyors today began planning for the placing of modern rifles in the Moro, San Cristobal and Escambron forts, in each of which will be mounted four 10-inch and two 12-inch guns, having a range of ten miles. The range of the present guns is only 5,000 yards.

EDITOR GOES THROUGH—Mr. R. E. Russell, of Dawson, a well known newspaper man, passed through the city today en route to his home after a visit to Hot Springs for his health. He is editor of the Weekly Oracle.

Lease

Of Life Renewed After Terrible

Suffering From Heart Disease.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Gave Me Health.

"Some years ago I suffered greatly with heart disease. I tried the best doctors in our country and got no relief until I began the use of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I used three bottles and have not had occasion to call a doctor since. It restored my heart to healthy activity and has given me a new lease of life. Prior to taking the remedy I was very restless and got but a few hours sleep during the night, felt tired out, had no ambition, was completely discouraged and had given up all hopes of getting better. I had taken so much medicine without relief that I had little faith when I began taking the Heart Cure, but after taking one bottle I could rest well. My stomach did not trouble me and in three months my health was completely restored. It is nearly six years since I stopped taking the Heart Cure and have had no return of the old symptoms and I know my cure is permanent."—LEWIS LAWRENCE, Ft. Worth, Texas.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure pleases every one who tries it. Taken, primarily, to strengthen the heart, the patient is pleasantly surprised to find that after a short time, his stomach is in better condition, his nerves are steadier, his color better, his strength greater, his appetite is improved and that he rests better at night. The reason is plain. It cures the symptoms by removing the cause. Stop doctoring your symptoms. Remove the cause with Heart Cure, the great heart and blood tonic.

All druggists sell and guarantee first bottle Dr. Miles' Remedies. Send for free book on Nervous and Heart Diseases. Address Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

DAILY THOUGHT.
Friendship is a spiritual thing. It is independent of matter or space or time. That which I love in my friend is not that which I see. What influences me in my friend is not his body, but his spirit.—Drummond.

GOOD WORDS FOR COL. BELKNAP.

Secretary Shaw, who has just completed a series of speeches in Kentucky for the Republican ticket, paid Colonel Morris K. Belknap, Republican nominee for governor, a high compliment in referring to his candidacy at Louisville. Secretary Shaw does not usually mention any candidate in his speeches, but he made an exception of Colonel Belknap, because Colonel Belknap is an exceptional man, and is entitled to everything good that is said for him.

Secretary Shaw said in reference to him:
"I seldom refer to candidates. I have taken an active part in two presidential campaigns and seldom, if ever, mentioned the name, though a personal friend of the standard bearer of my party. I have twice been a candidate in my own state for the highest office her people could bestow, but I never asked a man to vote for me and never permitted myself to mention my opponent's name, except in words of personal praise. In other words I have tried to exalt principles and policies and measures, and to put politics on the plane of statesmanship. I have not come to Kentucky to sing the praises of candidates. I have not come to Kentucky to build any man up nor to pull any man down. You know the candidates better than I can know them, and you know for what they stand. I am glad to believe that Colonel Belknap is a worthy exponent of the principles of the party he represents, and that his personal integrity is above suspicion. I cannot say I; I might say more, but have preferred to speak of those principles in which he is a steadfast believer, and for the progressive business policies which he is so admirably qualified to advance, and upon which the happiness of 80,000,000 people is so dependent."

DEMOCRATIC METHODS.
The Democratic campaign managers are getting into hot water over the exposure of their methods in this campaign. A few days ago Louisville Democratic papers faked a dispatch from Danville, Ky., purporting to be a speech made there by Mr. Lewis McQuown defending the Calhoun war fund graft. Mr. McQuown promptly repudiated it in its entirety. He wouldn't stand for it. It proved to be not even the usual garbled account dished up in Democratic papers to suit the purposes of the Democrats, but a veritable steal. It was a defense of the war fund graft written by Captain Calhoun himself, and given out to the reporters at Louisville by the Democratic campaign committee,—by mistake, the Democrats now claim. It is somewhat remarkable that these "mistakes" are not discovered until the material is published broadcast and distributed throughout the rural districts, where the correction, such as it is, never reaches in nine cases out of ten.

About the same time the above occurred the Democratic ring organ, the Lexington Democrat, took occasion to say that Commissioner Yerkes had misrepresented the congressional records in stating that the bill under which the war fund was collected was passed in 1899. The Democrat declared it was passed in October, 1898 instead. It developed that congress was not in session at the time.

The treasury department at Washington was telegraphed by the Lexington Leader, and this was received in reply showing that Commissioner Yerkes knew what he was talking about:

"Washington, D. C., Oct. 21, 1903.—To Editor Leader, Lexington, Ky.: Your telegram of this date concerning the reimbursement of the states, etc., is at hand. The right to this payment arose exclusively under the act of March 3, 1899, which was amendatory of the act of July 8, 1898, with the exception of $3,679.13, which accrued under the original act of July 8, 1898."
"O. H. KEEP,
"Acting Secretary of Treasury."

Every good citizen in Paducah should go to the polls and vote for the Republican ticket. It is the only way to secure progress. The Democratic crowd has demonstrated for years its inability to capably, economically or progressively manage municipal affairs. The sure way to defeat the clique is to vote for Mr. Jeff J. Read and the Republican ticket. No Republican should throw his vote away on the independent ticket, which doesn't stand the ghost of a show. Most, if not all of the Republicans on it are bolters. They are not only refusing to support their own ticket, but are running in opposition to it after having gone into the Republican convention only a short time before. No loyal Republican can afford to encourage such business by supporting the independent ticket. Teach the so-called Republicans on it a lesson. Every Republican who votes for the independent ticket becomes no better than the bolters on it who by going into the Republican convention and voting, pledged themselves to support the nominees and have failed to do it. Any man who wastes his vote on such Republicans is no better Republican than they are. He is nothing but a bolter himself.

If the Democratic candidates did not endorse the Populist-Socialist platform posted all over town with their names to it as having been endorsed by them, they had better make the men who put up the placards take them down. One clause of the platform is for "sanitary inspection of workhouse, mine and home." This is a good principle, but it is ridiculous for men to endorse it who have allowed the city to go without even sanitary inspectors for a whole year, and who allowed the city to get into such a filthy condition that complaints arose from every quarter. Empty words will not delude the people of Paducah this time. On every side its record of inefficiency and extravagance confronts the Democratic ticket, and dooms it to certain defeat.

The best material is usually the cheapest, and the general opinion seems to be that the city should require the contractor to furnish hard stone for the paved street curbing and not the soft stone he wants to furnish. If he cannot get the hard stone it is not the city's lookout. The city should get only the best stone, and has contracted for the best. The contractor signed a contract to furnish certain kind of stone, and if it is impossible for him to get it he should have found it out before he contracted to furnish it. It is not the city's funeral if he cannot get it now. The stand of Alderman Chamblin and others in the board of aldermen last night for the best material instead of the soft, cheap quality of stone, is commendable.

Mr. Jeff J. Read and the entire Republican ticket stand on the Republican platform, and on nothing else.

What a grand family medicine it is, grand—Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

The platform is plain, and it is all the Republican ticket is pledged to. Anything to the contrary is false and vicious.

Dowie is scheduled to soon sail for Europe. If he keeps up in New York as he has been, sailing may be too slow. He may have to fly.

THIS IS WHAT A VOTE FOR BECKHAM MEANS.

Saturday the Evening Post gave the particulars of gambling under the form of a slot machine, in open defiance of the law. These gambling devices pay their tribute to the party in power, and when protection is needed, protection is there.

A vote for Beckham is a vote for a continuance of the supremacy of the gamblers.

Today the Evening Post publishes in detail the laws under which taxation in Kentucky has been increased nearly a million dollars, with nothing but new grafts and offensive grafters to show for this increase.

This exhibit is of itself sufficient to overthrow any administration. It is a complete refutation of every claim made by Mr. Beckham on the stump. It shows how little the gentleman without a platform knows of the State's ledger; as little of the ledger as of the constitution.

A vote for Beckham is a vote for a continuance of this burden of taxation and gross extravagance.

The Evening Post has shown that the expense of the militia under Governor Beckham is four times as great as the expense of the militia under Gov. Bradley, yet Gov. Beckham arraigns Gov. Bradley for militarism and professes himself a distrust of the soldier.

A vote for Beckham is a vote of approval for this hypocrisy and this extravagance.

Furthermore, the Evening Post has shown how in this city extravagance has grown from year to year, contractors and grafters raiding the treasury, which is without protection or protectors. We have shown how the law is defied and city employees plundered for a campaign fund. We have shown how the schools are to be annexed to the domain of the Office-holders' Trust, and how, by this assistance, the gamblers of this city hope to rule the city, and by an alliance with the Beckham ring, how they hope to rule the State.

A vote for Beckham and the Beckham ticket is a vote of approval for all these things.

Men and women of Kentucky, this is but half, this is not half, the story of continued misgovernment at Frankfort and at Louisville. It will be told in installments. A man who boldly repudiates the underlying principles of the constitution cannot be expected to enforce the laws, eradicate the grafts and protect the homes of the people from the lawless, the violent and the vicious. Remember the Raleigh pardon, and cast a vote for your homes. Remember the reign of blood in Breathitt; see every day the condition revealed again in the trial of Jett, the pardoned Jett; see how these trials give ample room and verge enough the characters of hell to trace, fitly to portray the condition of affairs in Breathitt, which foreshadow the conditions that will everywhere prevail unless the reign of the lawless can be ended.

Magazine Notes

The November number of The Smart Set opens with a novelette by Cyrus Townsend Brady, entitled "The Corner is Coffee," in which this distinguished author appears at his very best, both as to form and substance.

Among the short stories in the number, Elizabeth Duer's "Visit in Black and White" is a strikingly clever presentation of an extraordinary situation. Janet Laing writes "Vladimir's Villa," a most amusing extravaganza.

Humor of unusual excellence, both in prose and verse, is contributed by May Isabel Fisk, and Tom Masson, Frank Roe Batchelder, Roy Farrell Greene, L. de V. Matthewman, Gellert Burgess and Guy Wetmore Carryl.

A mission is liable to swamp a magazine. So much zeal is developed that the real function of the publication, which is to entertain, is forgotten. Into this excess Everybody's Magazine which has recently undertaken a crusade against the idolatry of riches habit in America, is obviously not to be led. The November contents table makes a most inviting showing, presenting as it does stories and sketches by such amusing writers as Alfred Henry Lewis, O. Henry and Eugene Wood. There is no intrusion of a policy at all, and the reader is likely to find himself in the midst of Francis Bellamy's article about "Successful Men Who Are Not Rich" without dreaming that there is a serious moral to it. Mr. Bellamy avers that the nation is losing its ideals and that today success only means wealth. The millionaire is the modern hero. The new creed is, he says: "Brains may be more important than money, but nowadays the best way to convince the world that you have brains, is to make money."

Alfred Hodder, who collaborated with Josiah Flynt in his series of studies of "Graft in American Cities," describes in "Reform that Reforms" what has been accomplished for decency in New York by an honest administration. There is also an authoritative summing up of the career of John Alexander Dowie by a man with the analytic capacity for the task.—I. K. Friedman, the distinguished Chicago novelist.

RESURVEY OF MASON AND DIXON LINE

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 23.—The famous Mason and Dixon line, for generations regarded as the boundary line between the free states of the north and the slave states of the south, has been resurveyed and remarked.

The old line was run just after the close of the French and India war in 1763, to mark the boundary between William Penn's colony on the north and the colony of Virginia and Maryland on the south.

Afterward, when the anti-slavery agitation began to absorb the interest of the nation, Mason and Dixon's line, between free Pennsylvania and the two slave states, came to be regarded as the dividing line between the antagonistic sections and the slave country to the south was spoken of as "Dixie." William Bullock Clark, state geologist, has received a letter from Captain W. O. Hodgkins of the United States coast and geodetic survey announcing privately the completion of the work of resurveying the line. Captain Hodgkins was appointed to take charge of the Mason and Dixon line resurvey by the superintendent of the coast survey, who, with Mr. Bullock for Maryland, and General James W. Latta for Pennsylvania, form the boundary line commission. The Mason and Dixon line is 200 miles long, and the work of resurvey has taken more than a year.

The new line will be much straighter than the old. It is a work that has been sorely needed for more than a century. The public report will be made soon.

SHE WAS HEALED BY RELIC OF ST. ANNE

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 23.—A verdict of $5,000 was returned in favor of Mrs. Agness Elwood in Judge Mack's court. She sued the Chicago city railway company for $50,000, and on the witness stand claimed that her injuries had been healed by a miracle August 19, 1902.

Mrs. Elwood was injured to such an extent that she walked on crutches as two former trials of the case. She last appeared in court without crutches and unassisted and took the stand.

"I am cured," she declared. "The blessed relic of St. Anne touched me. My broken bones were healed and I threw my crutches away and walked into the house I had left a cripple." Judge and jury gazed in astonishment as the woman proceeded with her story of this modern miracle. She finished her tale of how the bit of bone from the saint's body had wrought wonder cure, and then she left the stand to three men of modern science.

"The woman's story is probably true," came the calm statement from the first of these, and he was Dr. D. A. K. Steele, president of the college of physicians and surgeons and one of the foremost of his profession.

"Yes, it doubtless is as Mrs. Elwood says," echoed Doctors Noble M. Kierhart and J. W. Dal. "It is called cure by the power of suggestion."

It was at St. Joseph's church, Thirty-eighth place and California avenue, that the miracle is said to have occurred August 19, 1902.

WHALE TOWS SHIP WITH TERRIFIC SPEED

New York, Oct. 23.—The whaling steamer Humber has arrived here, says a St. John's N. F. dispatch, for repairs from damages received in a battle royal off Cape Spear, N. F., with a monster whale, asserted by the crew to have been 110 feet long. The fight lasted twenty-nine hours.

When the monster was harpooned it started towing the vessel at the rate of seven miles an hour, though the engines were reversed full speed, which, under ordinary conditions, would mean a retrograde movement of about eight miles. This continued for hours, but the ship, as the whale flew off in zigzag course, being almost towed under the water, the sea washing the decks. Several times the captain was on the point of cutting the cable, but the windlass held, and the whale finally gave up the struggle.

TO CLOSE AWHILE

MEETING OF SALOON KEEPERS RESULTS IN AN AGREEMENT.

It is understood that representatives of the saloon keepers of Paducah met last evening and agreed to keep closed on Sunday hereafter, for a time at least. The saloons have been open on Sunday for months except a couple of weeks while the grand jury was in session. All the saloon keepers have not signed the agreement, but probably will.

THE MOUNT CASE

Examining Trial Entered Into This Afternoon.

It Is Understood the Defense Has Mapped Out Its Plans.

The examining trial of Willis Mount for the murder of Willis Nutty in the third story of the Stag saloon building Sunday night was on trial before Judge Sanders this afternoon at press time, and will doubtless not be completed today. There are many witnesses to examine and the main one, Whitnell, is not in the city.

The first witness examined was Dr. Adrian Hoyer, who told about the wounds, etc. Frank Atkinson was the next man and said that he was there when the quarrel arose, and saw Mount get up and put his hands into his pockets. Atkinson then left and was down stairs, he said, when the pistol was fired.

It is said that Mount's defense will be that Nutty was a convict in the Eddyville penitentiary and there made threats against Mount, and that once in the city out at him and cut his coat. The prosecution will probably not finish today.

ZION'S HOSTS WEARY.

THEY HAVE ENOUGH OF TRYING TO REFORM NEW YORK.

New York, Oct. 23.—A great crowd filled Madison Square Garden last night at the Dowie services, and a still greater crowd massed outside the building. Two hundred and fifty police were gathered there to keep order, but their services were little required.

The subject of Dr. Dowie's address was "The Claims of Christ As Universal King."

"The consummation of the age is rapidly approaching," he said, "and my mission is to tell you that the great and terrible day of the Lord is very near. God has never given up the government of his own world. What a farce to suppose that God, the Creator, the Sustainer, has relinquished his control. To whom? Oh, in America to the voter? No, there is but one form of government acceptable to God, and that is the theocratic government. Failures of men to understand the simple laws of God have been the cause of all human misery."

Two hundred of the followers of Dowie indicated that they were tired of the work of reforming New York city, and wanted to return to Zion City, when the "general overseer" invited all who wanted to give up the work and give others a chance to take it up to step forward at the early meeting in Madison Square Garden today. Dowie at that meeting said he should endeavor to convert the pope. He added that he had received many bogus checks since coming to New York, but that others had been good.

POST-OFFICE CASES.

PRESIDENT HOLDS A CONFERENCE—LIST TO BE PUBLISHED.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Attorney General Knox and Messrs. Bonaparte and Conrad, attorneys employed to investigate the postal scandals, had a conference with the President at the White House yesterday. It was given out that they discussed the scandals that are to be brought to light for the first time in reports that are yet to come. One of these reports is that of Messrs. Bonaparte and Conrad. It is learned that this report will be made public. Besides containing the names of officials already indicted or dismissed, it will give another list. This other list will give the names of some high officials who are made safe by the "statute of limitations," and others "whom it seems useless to indict when there is no possibility of conviction."

All parties to the conference at its conclusion were reticent, but it is known that the matters under discussion related particularly to phases of the postoffice investigation which have not been developed thoroughly in any reports presented to the president or the postoffice department. The Bonaparte-Conrad report, recently submitted to the president, it can be said, deals with things rather than with persons.

Fulton Officer Killed There This Afternoon.

Description of the Negro Who Shot him in the Mouth.

Capt. Henry Bailey, of the police department, this afternoon received a telephone message from Fulton that Deputy Marshal Rogers, on the Tennessee side of Fulton, was this afternoon shot in the mouth by two negroes and at last accounts was dying. The cause of the trouble is unknown. The negroes were about five feet seven inches tall; one wore a brown ragged suit and black cap, and the other blue overalls and a jumper. The police here are on the lookout for the murderers.

Wants to Cultivate Lobster Beds. Robinson Crusoe's island, Juan Fernandez, is surrounded by lobster beds so productive that a fortune awaits some man who will start a canning establishment there. So, at least, says Juan Calasaff, a native of Chili, who now lives on the island, and has just come to the United States in search of the capital needed for the enterprise. The island now has 180 inhabitants, but none of them has sufficient means to gather the rich harvest of lobsters that the nine months' open season makes possible.

MILLIONS INVOLVED IMPORTANT RULING

Moted Mining Case Again Settled in Butte, Mont Cities Liable to County Jailor for Prisoners.

Body of Missing Millionaire Believed to Have Been Found—Two Hangings for One Man. Those Sent to Jail in Addition to Being Fined Must Be Paid For.

OWARDLY ROBBERY OF WOMAN WAS RENDERED YESTERDAY

TEN MILLION CASE.
Butte, Mont., Oct. 23—Judge Clancy, in the district court here decided the famous Minnie Healy mining suit in favor of F. Augustus Heinze, whose claims to the mine have been opposed by the Boston and Montana Mine company, one of the allied Amalgamated copper corporations.

The value of the mine is estimated at $10,000,000. The case previously was decided in favor of Heinze by Judge Harney, of Butte, but was sent back by the supreme court for trial for alleged improper conduct by Judge Harney during the pendency of the case in his court.

Judge Clancy's decision was not regarded as final today.

The case, it is said, will be fought through the highest courts in the land. The title of the case is "Miles Finlen vs the Johnstown Mining company, a suit on a verbal contract."

THE ROPE SLIPPED.
Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 23—Felix Hall, alias Henry Jackson, colored, was hanged in the jailyard here yesterday for the murder of Norwood Clarke, a young white man, clerk at a commissary at a construction camp on the Ensley Southern railroad, two years ago.

Hall walked on the scaffold protesting his innocence, claiming that he had never worked on the Ensley Southern railroad and did not know Clarke. He alleged that he was in Mississippi when the crime occurred. When the drop fell the rope slipped, and the man breathed heavily for ten minutes when he was hauled and hanged a second time. This time the fall broke his neck. All efforts to have Hall confess the crime failed, and his last act before leaving his cell was to write out a declaration of his innocence for the newspapers, in which he claimed that his name was Henry Jackson.

BADLY MISTREATED A SISTER.
Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 23—One of the Catholic sisters, aged about eighteen years, of St. John's Orphans' Home for Boys, at Elm Grove, one of the city's suburbs, was beaten, gagged and tied to the floor at the home by four burglars, all supposed to be negroes.

The sister was the only occupant of the home at the time, with the exception of three children, and was defenceless. When discovered later, her head was badly bruised, and she was delirious.

When revived she stated that all the marauders wore masks, but that she thought they were all negroes.

The time chosen for the attempted robbery shows that the burglars were well informed of the movements of the inmates of the home. The robbers secured nothing of value but two violins.

BELIEVED TO BE MILLIONAIRE.
Clinton, Tenn., Oct. 23—A man found dead near here with a pile of letters burned beside him, is believed to be E. L. Wentz, the millionaire, missing from Big Stone Gap since October 14.

Wentz was the son of a Philadelphia millionaire, and his disappearance caused quite a sensation.

He went for a ride on October 14 but his horse returned home without him. Since that time nothing had been heard of him, though a large reward had been offered for information as to his whereabouts, and his father came here to personally assist in the search.

"The way to a man's heart is through his stomach," an old saying meaning that to win a man you must feed him well.

If this is not true, it is still true in another sense that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. Many persons imagine that they have heart disease when it is only indigestion.

This is how it comes about. The stomach distended by gas, crowds the heart and gives the feeling that the trouble is in the heart.

If you don't know that you have heart trouble, try using Walther's Pop-tonized Port and see if it does not relieve you. For sale by W. B. McPherson, Druggist, Paducah, Ky.

SSS THE BEST TONIC

In S. S. S. Nature has provided a tonic suited to every requirement of the system when in a debilitated, run down condition. It contains no strong minerals or drugs, but is a pleasant vegetable preparation. You can find no better remedy for toning up the nerves and bringing refreshing, restful sleep when in a low state of health, or sick and worn out with work or worry.

S. S. S. improves the appetite, aids the digestion and reinforces the system, and its good effects are seen almost from the first dose. It acts promptly in cases of chronic dyspepsia, indigestion and all stomach troubles, and does away with the uncomfortable fullness, nausea, shortness of breath, drowsiness and dizziness that so often come after eating.

S. S. S. is not only the best tonic but possesses alterative or purifying properties, and if there is any taint, humor or poison in the blood it searches it out, and removes it. Many times a low state of health is due to a bad condition of the blood and can only be remedied by a blood purifier and tonic combined, or such a remedy as S. S. S.

If you suffer from debility, insomnia, nervousness, loss of appetite, bad digestion, or any of the symptoms of a disordered blood, nothing will so soon put your blood in good condition, invigorate and tone up the system as S. S. S.

ALICE OF OLD VINCENNES

By MAURICE THOMPSON

Copyright, 1900, by the BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

"We'll see about that presently. Uncle Jason, wait till we reach the hill yonder, from which the whole town can observe our maneuvers; then we'll try it, maybe."

Once more the men were lined up, the roll call gone through with satisfactorily and the question put:

"Are we ready for another plunge through the mud and water?"

The answer came in the affirmative, with a unanimity not to be mistaken. The weakest heart of them all beat to the time of the charge step. Again Clark and Beverley clasped hands and took the lead.

When they reached the next high ground they gazed in silence across the slushy prairie plot to where, on a slight elevation, old Vincennes and Fort Sackville lay in full view.

Beverley stood apart. A rush of sensations affected him so that he shook like one whose strength was gone. His vision was blurred. Fort and town, swimming in a mist, were silent and still. Save the British flag twinkling above Hamilton's headquarters nothing indicated that the place was not deserted. And Alice? With the sweet name's echo Beverley's heart bounded high, then sank fluttering at the recollection that she was either yonder at the mercy of Hamilton or already the victim of an unrepeatable cruelty. Was it weakness for him to lift his clasped hands heavenward and send up a voiceless prayer?

A little later Clark approached hastily and said:

"I have been looking for you. The march has begun. Bowman and Charleville are moving. Come; there's no time to lose."

CHAPTER XVIII.

A DUEL BY MOONLIGHT.

WHEN Hamilton, after running some distance, saw that he was gaining upon Alice and would soon overtake her, it added fresh energy to his limbs.

He had quickly realized the foolishness of what he had done in visiting the room of his prisoner at so late an hour in the night. What would his officers and men think? To let Alice escape would be extremely embarrassing, and to be seen chasing her would give good ground for ridicule on the part of his entire command. Therefore his first thought, after passing through the postern and realizing fully what sort of predicament threatened him, was to recapture her and return her to the prison room in the blockhouse without attracting attention. This now promised to be an easier task than he had at first feared, for in the moonlight, which on account of the dispersing clouds was fast growing stronger, he saw her seem to falter and weaken.

Certainly her flight was checked and took an eccentric turn, as if some obstruction had barred her way. He rushed on, not seeing that as Alice swerved a man intervened. Indeed, he was within a few strides of laying his hand on her when he saw her make the strange movement. It was as if, springing suddenly aside, she had become two persons instead of one. But instantly the figures coincided again, and in becoming taller faced about and confronted him.

Hamilton stopped short in his tracks. The dark figure was about five paces from him. It was not Alice, and a sword flashed dimly but unmistakably in a ray of the moon. The motion visible was that of an expert swordsman placing himself firmly on his legs, with his weapon at guard.

Alice saw the man in her path just in time to avoid running against him. Lightly as a flying bird when it whisks itself in a short semicircle past a tree or a bough she sprang aside and swung around to the rear of him, where she could continue her course toward the town. But in passing she recognized him. It was Father Beret, and how grim he looked! The discovery was made in the twinkling of an eye, and its effect was instantaneous, not only checking the force of her flight, but stopping her and turning her about to gaze before she had gone five paces farther.

Hamilton's nerve held, startled as he was, when he realized that an armed man stood before him. Changing the rapier, which he held in his right hand, over into his left, he drew a small pistol from the breast of his coat and fired. The report was sharp and loud, but it caused no uneasiness or inquiry in the fort owing to the fact that Indians invariably emptied their guns when coming into the town.

Hamilton's aim, although hasty, was not bad. The bullet from his weapon cut through Father Beret's clothes between his left arm and his body, slightly creasing the flesh on a rib. Beyond him it struck heavily and audibly. Alice fell limp and motionless to the soft, wet ground, where cold puddles of water were splintered over with ice. She lay pitifully crumpled, one arm outstretched in the moonlight. Father Beret heard the bullet hit her and turned in time to see her stagger backward with a hand convulsively pressed over her heart. Her face, slightly upturned as she reeled, gave the moon a pallid target for its strengthening rays. Sweet, beautiful, its rigid features flashed for a second and then half turned from the light and went down.

NEWS OF THE RIVERS.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 5.4 on the gauge, a rise of 0.3 in the last 24 hours. Weather clear and cool. S. A. Fowler, Local Observer.

The Rath is still due from the mides. The Nevins has come in from Caseyville.

The Dunbar is today's Evansville packet.

The Avalon up to Cincinnati from Memphis Sunday.

The Joe Fowler left on time this morning for Cairo.

The Tennessee will arrive today from Tennessee river.

The Fred Hartwig, a big Cincinnati coal boat, passed up last night.

The Lyda is due to go out to Tennessee river today or tomorrow.

The Charleston did not get out yesterday but left this morning for Tennessee river.

The Wilford will be ready to go out Monday. She burst a cylinder head two days ago.

The Penguin went up the Cumberland yesterday after a barge of stone and is due out today.

The Victor will go out Monday for Tennessee river. Her new wheel is about ready to be placed on.

The Bettie Owen got stuck on the ground at her landing yesterday afternoon and had to be pulled off by the Mary N. No Damage.

The Vivian arrived this morning from the Ohio with a big tow of mussel shells and is en route to the Mississippi river with it.

The fleet of new Government flats being brought down the river by the Lulu F. Warren were built by the Barretts at their boat and barge building plant at LeVanna, O. This plant has been doing good work and lots of it since it was established, and its business is increasing speedily.

The St. Louis Waterways Journal says: "The following different lines were in operation in 1852: St. Louis to New Orleans; St. Louis to Memphis; St. Louis to Louisville; St. Louis to Cincinnati; St. Louis to Pittsburg; St. Louis to Nashville; St. Louis to upper Mississippi; St. Louis to Illinois river. There was also a line of boats from Nashville to Memphis. Where are they now?"

In the antebellum days of steam-boating there was not a better and more favorably known engineer on the river than Capt. John W. Wilson, says the Courier Journal. He began his career at the throttle when he was a young man, and during his career on the river he has held positions on the largest, finest and fastest boats in the Louisville and New Orleans trade.

He is the father of Superintendent Capt. Geo. H. Wilson, of the Evansville Packet Company, and is active and healthy, and "Jack" is expected to be on friendly terms with time and age for some years to come.

A Parkersburg correspondent of the Waterways Journal says: "Capt. Winan's prediction that bow-boats would be a thing of the near future for heavy coal tows will be fulfilled some time before the Pittsburg captain's that all boats will have inside cams. With a good pool-boat at the forward end of the fleet the risk would be reduced considerably. You start a mammoth towboat down the river with over a million bushels of coal, and the breaking of a one inch rod may wreck the whole fleet. Uncle Sam sees to it that those boats have two ways of supplying their boilers; so the coal men should see that bow boats tear the same relation to the big fleet that the little injector does to the big towboat, besides the powerful help she would be in swinging those treacherous bends. The sooner they bring her into use the sooner they will have the satisfaction of seeing those costly spills a thing of the past. It's getting there with what you start with that makes plain sailing for all concerned."

BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXIONS

Are spoiled by using any kind of preparation that fills the pores of the skin. The best way to secure a clear complexion, free from sallowness, pimples, blotches, etc., is to keep the liver in good order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver, and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Mr. W. A. Hurley has accepted a position in the local I. O. yard office.

Theatrical Notes.

"Peg Woffington" was enjoyed by a fairly large, and decidedly appreciative audience last night at the Kentucky theater. The excellent work done by Miss Hortense Neilsen and her company deserves the highest praise, for it was art. The performance began with "An Episode in the Life of Thomas Chatterton" as a curtain raiser, in which Miss Neilsen appears as a young poet who took arsenic to keep from starving to death and found a check of 50 pounds on his desk after it was too late. Miss Neilsen's interpretation was full of pathos, and she was ably assisted by Helen Treadwell as "Mrs. Angel" and Leone Lozell as "Kitty."

The performance of "Peg Woffington" is in three acts. A solo sung in the first act by Miss Marie Neilsen, sister of the star, won deserved applause, and the star herself sang a song in the second act. Robert E. O'Connor as "Sir Charles Pomander," Gus D. Hart as "Ernest Vane," and Harry F. Adams as "Mr. Triplet," the author and artist, were good, especially "Triplet." The minor roles were in capable hands. The play is one in which comedy and pathos are well blended, and seemed to greatly please the audience. Miss Neilsen is a clever actress with a bright future, and had good support. There is a great deal of quiet humor and satire in the lines of Peg Woffington, and those who like the better class of plays and did not go missed a treat last night.

Since the first performance of Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew" which occurred during the latter part of the sixteenth century, down to the present day, the comedy has ranked as the best example of the immortal Bard's lighter plays. The action begins at the rising of the curtain and continues uninterruptedly to the close of the final act, introducing wholesome and pleasing comedy to which the most exacting critic could not object. To those who have read "The Taming of the Shrew," the coming revival at the Kentucky tomorrow matinee and night will be a welcome announcement. Mr. Charles B. Hanford, one of the most accomplished of Shakespearean artists will be seen as Petruchio and Miss Marie Dronah as Katherine.

A New York dispatch of yesterday says: Twenty-seven hundred actors, who in ordinary seasons would have no trouble in securing engagements, are out of work in New York today, according to Mrs. E. L. Fernandez, one of the leading agents for high class theatrical people.

There is nothing so important in facing severe cold weather as a well organized digestive force. When the stomach properly digests nutritious food it creates new, rich blood; and fortifies the system against cold.

Walther's Peptonized Port, to be found at all drug stores is an ideal combination of pure, rich port and the best quality of pepton. It strengthens the weak digestive organs, restores the appetite, builds and tones up the entire system.

For invalids, convalescents and worn out people, there is nothing so beneficial as Walther's Peptonized Port. For sale by W. B. McPherson, Druggist, Paducah, Ky.

NOW READY FOR WAR

Reported That Japan Has Declared War on Russia.

Outlook is Dark—Meeting of the Tennessee River Association.

EARTHQUAKE AT DYERSBURG.

DECLARATION REPORTED.

Honolulu, Oct. 23.—The local Japanese consul has just warned the master of a Japanese mail steamer sailing for Yokobama that war has been declared.

NOT CONFIRMED.

London, Oct. 23.—London has no confirmation of Honolulu report that war has been declared.

A DARK OUTLOOK.

London, Oct. 23.—Reports of keen competition for Welsh coal add to the pessimistic feeling. The British admiralty sought to charter, at Cardiff, a steamer for immediate loading with coal for Hongkong, but failed to obtain one at 18 shillings per ton, and it is the general opinion among ship owners at the South Wales port that the admiralty will not succeed in obtaining an early vessel at the figure named, owing to the Japanese and Russian bidding for early steamers. Wednesday night and yesterday four large steamers, aggregating 23,000 tons, were chartered for Japan.

Once again London regards the outlook in the far east as of the blackest.

Japan is held to have her best available admiral in Vice-Admiral Togo, who has just taken command of the standing squadron, which would probably be engaged first in the event of war. In 1894 Vice-Admiral Togo, who was then captain of the cruiser Naniwa, struck the first blow, and his vessel saw more fighting than any other in the campaign. Vice-Admiral Togo has the nickname of "Fighting Admiral," and is one of the popular heroes of Japan.

I. C. AFTER THE T. C.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 23.—The fact that J. F. Wallace of the Illinois Central railroad, was in conference here yesterday with George A. Clark, general manager of the Tennessee Central, has revived rumors that the Illinois Central will soon purchase the Tennessee Central, if it has not already done so. Mr. Wallace denied that a purchase had been made; in fact, he said he had not come here in connection with the Tennessee Central, but to confer with the United States engineer relative to a bridge across the Big Hatchie river between Fulton and Memphis. The Tennessee Central's bridge over the Cumberland river, just below Nashville, was opened to traffic at 1:30 o'clock this morning, when a number of ballast cars passed over.

TENNESSEE RIVER MEETING.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 23.—The Tennessee river convention opened yesterday with an attendance of 200 delegates from Tennessee and Alabama points. The object of the association is to secure a large appropriation for the opening of the Tennessee river so that navigation will be practicable the year round. The business men of the territory traversed by the Tennessee river have organized with this purpose in view. The meeting is marked by the enthusiasm of the delegates. Letters of encouragement were read from Congressmen Burton of Ohio and Bankhead of Alabama.

DEATH AT JACKSON.

Jackson, Tenn., Oct. 23.—Col. Peter J. Murray, manager of the Trenton and Jackson Oil Mills, and one of Jackson's most prominent citizens, is dead, aged 58 years. He was in the telegraph service under Gen. Miles, was afterward manager of the Western Union at Memphis, coming from there to Jackson in 1878, where he has resided ever since. He was president of Post D Travelers' Protective Association, and prominent in church and business circles. He leaves a wife and ten children.

QUITE A JOLT.

Dyersburg, Tenn., Oct. 23.—Two violent shocks of earthquake startled the people of this city at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Many thought burglars were in town and one young man went after the sheriff and constables, who made a thorough search of the Bank of Commerce premises.

ANOTHER FOOTBALL VICTIM.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 23.—The first fatality to occur on a local football field had its climax today when John Withnell, quarterback of the St. Louis University eleven, died after an operation.

Withnell's injury was sustained in practice Tuesday.

BAND OF LADRONES

KILL THE WIFE AND UNCLE OF AN OFFICIAL AND THREE VOLUNTEERS.

Manila, Oct. 23.—The news has just been received here that a band of ladrones surprised the town of Iriga, in the province of Ambos, Camarines Lazon, and killed the wife and uncle of the president and three volunteers. Before retiring they captured nine guns. Onofre, the leader of the ladrones, was killed. The presidente says that he was betrayed by the municipal secretary.
